

Aegean Art and Architecture: Oxford History of Art

Aegean Art and Architecture: Oxford History of Art provides a comprehensive overview of the art and architecture of the Aegean region, from the Bronze Age to the Hellenistic period. This richly illustrated book is perfect for students and scholars of ancient art and architecture, as well as anyone interested in the history of the Aegean region.

The book is divided into four parts, each of which covers a different period of Aegean history. The first part, "The Bronze Age," discusses the art and architecture of the Minoans, Cycladics, and Mycenaeans. The second part, "The Iron Age," covers the art and architecture of the Geometric, Orientalizing, and Archaic periods. The third part, "The Classical Period," discusses the art and architecture of the fifth and fourth centuries BCE. The fourth part, "The Hellenistic Period," covers the art and architecture of the third and second centuries BCE.
