Embark on an unforgettable adventure with Isadora Moon, a charming and unique half-vampire, half-fairy who always manages to find herself in the most hilarious of situations.

Isadora Moon is back in another thrilling and heartwarming adventure, and this time, she's getting into all sorts of trouble!

Isadora Moon is a very special girl. She is half-vampire, half-fairy, and she lives in a world where vampires and fairies are not supposed to get along. But Isadora doesn't care about the rules. She loves her vampire father and her fairy mother, and she loves her friends, both vampires and fairies.

In this new adventure, Isadora is excited to start school at a new vampire school. But when she gets there, she quickly realizes that she's not like the other vampires. She's not afraid of the dark, she loves to play in the sun, and she doesn't like to drink blood. Isadora starts to feel like she doesn't belong, and she starts to get into trouble.

But Isadora is a strong and brave girl, and she's not afraid to be herself. She stands up for what she believes in, and she shows the other vampires that it's okay to be different.

Isadora Moon Gets In Trouble is a delightful and heartwarming story about friendship, family, and diversity. It's a perfect book for young readers aged 6-9, and it's sure to become a favorite.
