Author John Antonik, a veteran sportswriter and lifelong Mountaineer fan, has spent years covering the Mountaineers for the Charleston Gazette-Mail. In Tales From The West Virginia Mountaineers Sideline, he shares his firsthand knowledge of the program, from the glory days of the 1980s and 1990s to the resurgence of recent years.

Antonik has interviewed dozens of Mountaineer players, coaches, and administrators for this book, including:

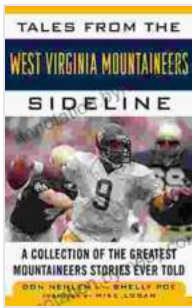

- Pat White, the 2007 Heisman Trophy runner-up
- Geno Smith, the 2012 Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year
- Dana Holgorsen, the Mountaineers' head coach from 2011 to 2018
- Neal Brown, the Mountaineers' current head coach

Tales From The West Virginia Mountaineers Sideline is more than just a history of the Mountaineer football program. It's also a celebration of the passion and pride of Mountaineer fans. Antonik captures the unique atmosphere of Mountaineer football games, from the pregame tailgate parties to the postgame celebrations. He also explores the special bond between the Mountaineers and their fans.

Whether you're a lifelong Mountaineer fan or just a casual observer, Tales From The West Virginia Mountaineers Sideline is a must-read. It's the ultimate insider's guide to the Mountaineer football program, and it's sure to leave you cheering for the Mountaineers all season long.
