A Tapestry of Unity and Heritage

As the sun sets, casting a warm golden glow across the African village, Bakari gathers his young companions around a crackling fire. With eyes sparkling with wisdom and stories untold, he transports them to a vibrant realm where African heritage intertwines with the guiding principles of Kwanzaa.

With each principle, Bakari weaves a captivating tale that resonates deeply with the children. Umoja (Unity) teaches them the power of standing together, facing challenges as one. Kujichagulia (Self-Determination) empowers them to make choices that shape their own destinies.

Lessons from the Past, Hope for the Future

Bakari's stories are not mere tales; they are echoes of the past, lessons learned from generations before. They remind the children of the struggles and triumphs of their ancestors, instilling in them a deep sense of pride and purpose.

Ujima (Collective Work and Responsibility) encourages them to work together, recognizing that their collective strength is greater than the sum of its parts. Ujamaa (Cooperative Economics) teaches the importance of supporting local businesses and sharing resources within their community.

Learn About Kwanzaa

What are the Nguzo Saba (The Seven Principles) of Kwanzaa?

Umoja (unity): To strive for and maintain unity in the family, community, nation and race.

Kujichagulia (self-determination): To define ourselves, name ourselves, create for ourselves and speak for ourselves.

Ujima (collective work and responsibility): To build and maintain our community together and to make our Brother's and sister's problems, our problems and to solve them together.

Ujamaa (cooperative economics): To build and maintain our own stores, shops and other businesses and to profit from them together.

Nia (purpose): To make as our collective vocation the building and developing of our community in order to restore our people to their traditional greatness.

Kuumba (creativity): To do always as much as we can, in the way that we can, in order to leave our community more beautiful than when we inherited it.

Imani (faith): To believe with all our hearts in our parents, our teachers, our leaders, our people and the righteousness and victory of our struggle.
