This timeless illustrated children's classic, now available in a stunning new edition, will transport your child to a world of wonder, joy, and the true meaning of Christmas.

A Tale that Captivates the Heart

At the heart of this enchanting story lies a young orphan named Mary. With her kind heart and unwavering faith, Mary eagerly anticipates the arrival of Christmas, hoping that this year will bring her the greatest gift of all – a loving family.

As Christmas Eve approaches, a mysterious stranger arrives at the orphanage. With a gentle smile and twinkling eyes, he tells Mary an extraordinary tale of a child born in a humble stable, a child who would grow up to bring hope and joy to the world.

Stunning Illustrations that Bring the Story to Life

The magic of 'The Christmas Child' is further brought to life by the breathtaking illustrations that adorn every page. Each image is a masterpiece, capturing the innocence and wonder of childhood, the warmth of the holiday season, and the profound message of love and hope that lies at the heart of Christmas.

From the cozy glow of the orphanage to the bustling streets of Bethlehem, from the radiant glow of the Christmas star to the gentle gaze of the Holy Family, these illustrations transport your child to the very heart of the Christmas story.
