Doe's meticulously researched book spans thousands of years and cultures, from ancient Egypt to modern America. She uncovers the stories of forgotten queens, scientists, artists, warriors, and everyday women who have shaped our world.

In these pages, you will meet:

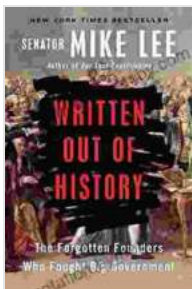

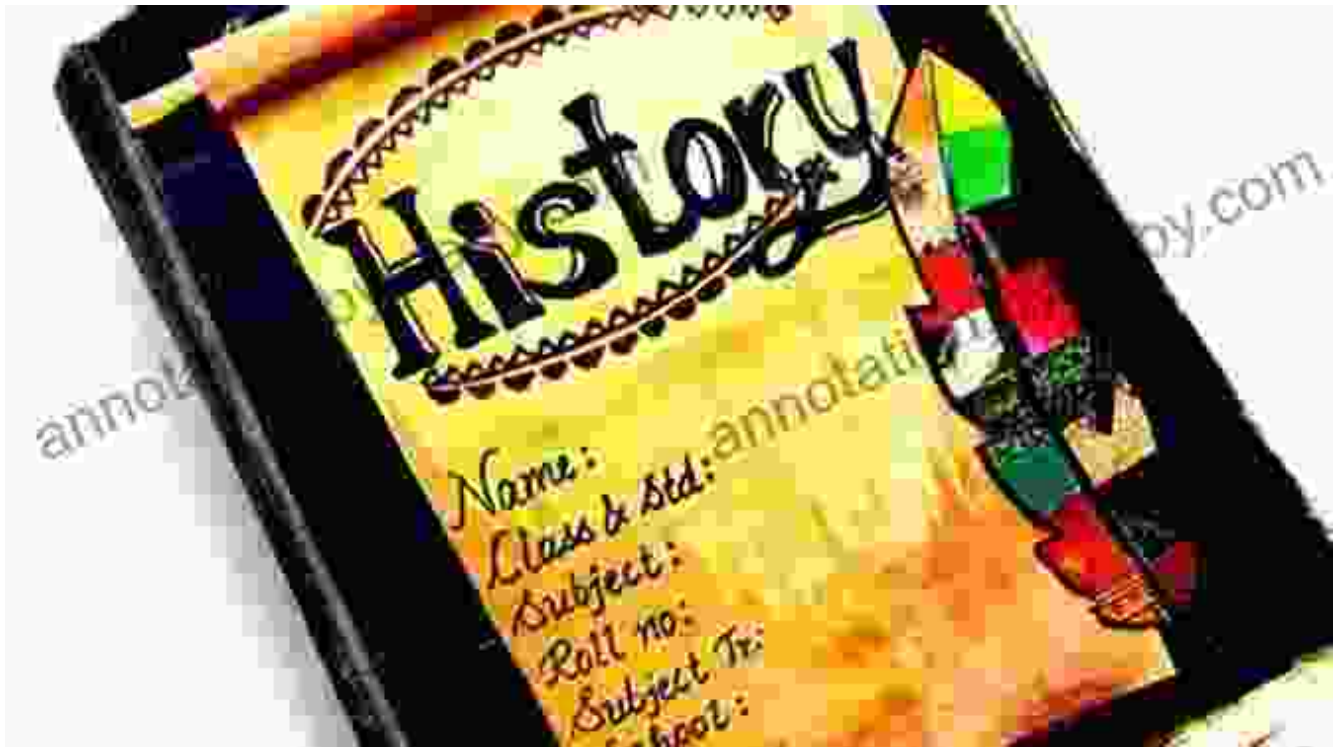

- Hatshepsut, the powerful female pharaoh who ruled Egypt for over 20 years

- Hypatia, the brilliant mathematician and astronomer who was murdered by a mob of Christian fanatics
- Hildegard of Bingen, the visionary abbess who wrote groundbreaking works on medicine and music
- Artemisia Gentileschi, the Baroque painter who overcame tremendous odds to become one of the most celebrated artists of her time
- Sojourner Truth, the abolitionist and women's rights activist who fought tirelessly for justice

These are just a few of the many women whose stories have been lost to time. In Written Out of History, Jane Doe brings these voices back to life, giving them the recognition they deserve.

This book is a must-read for anyone interested in history, women's studies, or social justice. It is a powerful reminder that women have always been a force for change in the world, and that their stories are worth telling.
